CSWG Process Review International Training

LtCol Roberts

Deputy Director

Coalition and Special Warfare Center, TECOM

International Training Overview: Mission Summary

- To train/educate International Military Students in USMC subject matter
  - Includes entire spectrum of both PME and training
  - Principal customers are foreign military personnel, includes Foreign Military Sales, Foreign Military Financing, IMET etc.
  - May take place in CONUS or OCONUS and includes resident courses as well as MTTs and extended deployments in excess of 179 days. Includes both coordination and execution.

Process Review Assessment Chart
International Training

Process Breakdown Table	Core Assessment Table				Risk Assessment Table
	Core	Core Critical Enabler	Non-Core Must be Gov't	Non-Core Avail. In Market	Direct Effect on Operational Forces	Criticality	Military Performance Rqmt
International Training (CONUS)			x		L	L	H
International Training (OCONUS)			x		L	L	H

Core Assessment Table:

Justifying Non-Core Competencies (Must Be Gov't)

Subprocess	Justification
International Training (CONUS)	•Military to Military contact essential. •Program management and policy oversight currently accomplished by USG civilians.
International Training (OCONUS)	•Military to military contact essential. •Provides training specifically requested by customer countries. Program management currently accomplished by USG civilians.
	Back-Up Chart 3

Risk Assessment Table: Military Performance Rqmt

Subprocess	Justification for “M” or “H” Risk
International Training (CONUS)	•Relationship building is the essential objective of international training which can only be provided by Military to Military contact. •Military knowledge/skills inherently required by the nature of training/education provided.
International Training (OCONUS)	•Relationship building is the essential objective of international training which can only be provided by Military to Military contact. •Military knowledge/skills inherently required by the nature of training/education provided.

Back-Up Chart 6